The start of the story

1/ There was a lot of snow, so the people couldn't hunt and fish for food.

2/ Glooscap, the Great Spirit, was also cold and he heard the people's cries.

Finally, they reached a land with beautiful grass and flowers.

Glooscap and the people wanted Summer to stay forever, but she said “no.”

Glooscap heard music and found some beautiful princesses.

Glooscap took Summer away to his land in the North.

Glooscap walked through the land, looking for the source of the cold.

He asked the Great Whale to help him find the land.

He finally found the source – he came face to face with a giant named WINTER.

However, Glooscap did not wake up until a very long time after that.

It took a month for them to make the trip to the North.

Slowly, Winter melted away. He cried, “Stop, You have won!”

The message was “In a land to the south, there is a princess who can bring hope.”

The most beautiful princess’ name was SUMMER.

The people were very pleased that Glooscap brought the Summer to their land.

They agreed that Summer would stay for 6 months and then Winter could visit them.

They had to face the giant Winter, but Summer had a stronger magic.

When he woke up and broke free, he went to the sea.

Winter told Glooscap a story and soon Glooscap fell into a deep sleep.

Winter wanted him to sleep forever, but Glooscap heard the loons give him a message.
