

Amazing Vacation - Expressing Feelings & Experiences

source: Ithaal Undersea Restaurant. Nolita Harbour

- Matt and Becky went to an underwater restaurant when they were on vacation.
- These sentences are from an email they sent to their family
- The word to use is in front. Write in the correct form of the word in the sentence.
- Should it be _____-ed OR _____ing? (Is it about a feeling or thing or experience?)

Hi everyone!

(excite) We had an _____ day in the Maldives at an underwater restaurant!

(confuse) First, it was _____ to book a reservation because we did it on the phone. They speak English, but I had a hard time understanding the person's accent.

(frustrate) We left early in the morning. I was _____ during the 30-minute speed boat ride to the restaurant because my hair got all wet.

(amaze) It was _____ to watch the fish while we were sitting there.

(bore) However, some of the fish seemed _____ when they looked in at the people.

(interest) We didn't talk very much because we were _____ in watching the fish.

(frighten) One young child was _____ of a big fish, so he cried a lot.

(amuse) However, his sister thought all the fish were _____, so she laughed all the time.

(annoy) Matt was _____ because we could only stay for 1 hour.

(shock) The prices were _____. We just had a small brunch. It cost about close to $200 USD for each of us – for just one hour! (thrill) We not _____ with the Canadian exchange rate!

(surprise) I wasn't very _____ about the prices. It must be very expensive to build an underground restaurant.

(tire) I don't know why, but the whole day was _____.

(relax) Tomorrow, we will have a _____ day. We will go to the beach. It is a 5-minute walk from our hotel.

See you next week!

Love Becky (and Matt too)